Biography

Formed in Buenos Aires, Argentina in 2020 by singer Juli Hope and guitarist Yamil Ladner, Abstracted Mind is a Symphonic Metal band that blends powerful orchestral arrangements with modern and progressive metal.

In 2021, Abstracted Mind released three singles: "Nadie Podrá Cambiar", "Ser Quien Soy" and "Una Oportunidad", each accompanied by an official music video. During the pandemic, the band performed in two online festivals: "Heresy Fest Online 5th Edition" and "Argentina Online Metal Fest 4th Edition".

After the pandemic, the duo relocated to The Netherlands and began writing new material in English. In August 2024, the band released a new song "Eternals", a track that showcases their new powerful music blend, also featuring an official music video. Abstracted Mind is currently recording upcoming releases and preparing for future shows.

To strengthen their live performances, the band added Rik Lamers as drummer and Rutger Klijn on bass. Abstracted Mind is now ready to take the stage and make their mark on the international metal scene.
